

The Fellowship in Diabetes & Endocrinology

Join the UAE's next generation of endocrinologists

The fellowship in Diabetes and Endocrinology aims to train a new group of diabetologists and endocrinologists who are able to tackle the growing diabetes prevalence in the UAE.

Graduates will be able to practice independently and to high, internationally recognised standards.

FELLOWSHIP OVERVIEW

- Organised by Imperial College London Diabetes Centre and Imperial College London
- HAAD approved
- 3 years
  - 2 years spent at Imperial College London hospitals in the UK
  - 1 year spent between teaching hospitals in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain as well as ICLDC
- Follows the UK curriculum
- Research opportunities

CURRICULUM

- Joint Royal Colleges of Physicians Training Board (JRCPTB) Endocrinology curriculum

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- UAE nationals
- Any physician who has an interest in diabetes and endocrinology
- Those with a minimum score of 7.5 in all categories of the International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
- Preferably has passed MRCP Part 1 or Part 2 written examination

SPONSORSHIP

- Through SEHA (Abu Dhabi Health Services Company)

WHAT YOU GET

- Salary
- Study leave budget
- Annual leave

For more information, contact us via email at cme@icldc.ae